Barry has a big smile. April straightens the items in front of him. HE LOOKS READY TO CRY. A pause as Tyler and Barry each look at April to start. April fake smiles.

APRIL
Here I am, to play the jolly skipper...

Tyler COUGHS. Barry smiles. CLOSE ON APRIL:

BARRY
Doctor.

April begins to read from the teleprompter. His voice cracks.

APRIL
It was our pleasure. To participate...
(a wistful smile)
In one great adventure.
(fiddling fingers)
It's an adventure that took place
over quite a long time.
(shifting in seat)
We...We all, here, and the people listening in today, have the opportunity to share that adventure.

April looks at Tyler, then Barry. Barry offers a smile. April fake smiles back and continues his speech, staring into space. Tyler makes throat noises.

APRIL (CONT'D)
We're going to divert a little bit
from the format of past press conferences and talk about...

Tyler COUGHS. He turns his head to someone in the audience. He could be staring at the camera. April wrenches his hands.

BARRY
The operations that occurred...

TYLER
During the rescue of the Rosenberg.

Barry looks down and away. PANEL VIEW. CLOSE ON DESPONDENT APRIL. Claps from the audience.

 ...A number of films and slides.
 Most of which you've already seen.

TYLER Things that might not be obvious to those of you here.

BARRY
 It was extraordinary! Like a movie.

APRIL
